Käte Hamburger Kolleg "Dynamics in the History of Religions"

Postdoctoral Research Fellowship History of Central Asian Religions

The Käte Hamburger Kolleg "Dynamics in the History of Religions between Asia and Europe" at Ruhr University Bochum, Germany, invites applications for a visiting fellowship for research on the history of Central Asian religions during the academic year 2013, from April 2013 to March 2014.

We offer:

- opportunity for dedicated research in an interdisciplinary and international environment;
- generous scholarship either as a direct grant or as a salary for a substitute;
- good infrastructure (libraries etc.);
- free lodging in an adequate apartment;
- travel expenses related to research activities;
- means for organizing a workshop or small conference.

We expect:

- research on the history of Central Asian religions from the early modern times to the present day, with special regard to inter-religious contact and transfer;
- your presence during the fellowship term;
- committed participation in the ongoing activities of the Käte Hamburger Kolleg;
- substantial research results in form of publications.

Both fresh and senior scholars may apply. The Ruhr University Bochum is an equal opportunity employer and encourages women and members of minorities to apply. Applications are expected to include a letter of interest, a current résumé, a list of publications, and an exposé of the intended research of about five pages. Please e-mail your application by 15 November 2012 at the latest to:
